

BRAD ALLEN LOGAN
Captain
10th Squadron
d. 13 March 1980

Brad Allen Logan b. 4/4/1953 d. 3/13/1980

On 13 March 1980, Captain Brad Allen Logan, a member of the US Air Force Academy Class of 1975, was killed when the F-4G aircraft hit San Miguel Peak and crashed in bad weather. At the time of the accident, Brad was flying as part of a three-ship training mission on the gunnery range in northern Spain. The other crewmember, Major George M Bourque of Biddeford, Maine, was also killed. Brad was assigned to the 406th Tactical Fighter Training Wing, Ramstein, West Germany at the time of his death.

Brad Logan's hometown was Newfoundland, PA. While a Cadet, Brad was a member of the 10th Cadet Squadron. He participated in the scuba, mountaineering, ski, and chemistry clubs; was on the Dean's List and the Commandant's List; and majored in Chemistry. Brad received his pilot wings at Craig Air Force Base, Alabama.

He was survived by his wife, a sister, Pamela Follmer, and his parents, Gerald Willis and Delores Marion (Corey) Logan of Newfoundland, PA.

On 12 Jun 1976, he married Roxanne Marie Erwin, who had served in the US Army. In 1995, Roxanne, a teacher at Ullom Elementary School in Las Vegas, died on the 15th anniversary of Brad's crash when she was murdered by a drifter.

Roxanne Marie Erwin Logan b. 2/12/1952 d. 3/13/1995

Roxanne was a Captain in the US Air Force and the widow of Air Force Captain Brad Allen Logan. She loved Brad very much and missed him immensely. Roxanne was brutally murdered on 13 Mar 1995, the 15th anniversary of her husband's crash, by a drifter in Las Vegas, Nevada. At the time she was a school teacher at Ullom Elementary School in Clark County. Her killer was found guilty of first-degree murder and sentenced to death, however, he died of a failed liver before sentence could be carried out.
